InclusionINC Welcomes William W. (Bill) Wells, Jr. as Vice President of Strategic Inclusion Solutions

Minneapolis, MN – 4/7/2010: InclusionINC announces the addition of William W. Wells, Jr. in the newly created position of Vice President of Strategic Inclusion Solutions. Bill is a nationally recognized figure in the inclusion and diversity industry and currently holds the role of Chairman of the National Black MBA Association. Prior to joining InclusionINC, Bill provided strategic management consulting services as President of W. Wells & Associates, LLC and throughout his career has held various executive level positions, most recently as Vice President of Global Diversity at The St Paul Companies.

"We are absolutely honored and delighted to have Bill join our team. He is a tremendous leader in the industry and is completely aligned with our conviction that inclusion is a business strategy for employee engagement, retention and productivity," remarked Shirley Engelmeier, CEO and Chief Inclusion Strategist of InclusionINC. "Bill brings both the experience and executive insight needed to link inclusion and diversity strategies solidly to business objectives for our major corporate clients," she continued.

"Two of the areas that impressed me most as I interviewed the company was the team's passion for metrics and their Learning Over Time training strategy designed to bring inclusion and diversity to all levels of the organization. I was also excited to learn how InclusionINC is emerging as a true thought-leader in our industry, creating innovative content that is moving the discussion beyond diversity training. For these reasons and many others, I am delighted to be part of the InclusionINC team," Bill noted.
